STRONG OPENING IN STOCK MARKET

Limit of Upward Bound Reached in a Very Short Time,

OPERATORS .. DISAPPOINTED

The Money Outlook Still Regarded With Great Dissatisfaction.

NEW YORK, March 7.-The strong opening in the stock market to-day was opening in the stock market to-day was an effect carried over from yesterday's rebound on short covering by the bears, who sold the market on Monday's break. It took a very few minutes of trading to demonstrate that the limits of the rebound had been rached. Not only was there an insignificant demand of higher level of prices, but a renewed disposition showed itself to take advantage of the better terms for a resumption of selling. This action of the market proved a disappointment to operators who had hoped that yesterday's rally marked the turn for the better. The dell-and neglected condition of the trading for the rest of the day reflected this disappointment and also a certain amount of distrust lest important liquidation might remain to be effected. The opening sirringth in the market owed much to improved conditions abroad. The money outlook is still rexarded with disappointment was of higher prices. Its sudden weakening after the opening advance was of large influence on the whole market. Reports of the serious illness of Charles M. Schwab were subject of comment in today's stock market. The day's net changes are insignificant. The special strength in Amalgamated Copper, Colorado Fuel and Distilleries' Securities caused some recovery in the general list from the low level of the day, but the recovery was not held and the closing tone was easy. effect carried over from yesterday's of the day, but the recovery was not held and the closing tone was easy.

STAUNTON, VA., March 7.—A petition recent election of Mr. W. F. Bucher as chief of the Fire Department, to succeed

Mr. Daniel Kingan, resigned, they claiming that Mr. Bucher was not even a member of the department, and that they

MAN DEAD AND HIS MONEY GONE

Harry Campbell in Room With a Girl When He Met His Death.

SHOT HIMSELF ACCIDENTALLY

Was a Married Man and a Stonecutter at Mount Airy.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., March 7.
The coroner's jury to-day rendered a verdict to the effect that Harry Campbell, a stone-cutter from Mt. Airy, who was shot in a room over the revenue office here last night, came to his death by accidentally shooting himself.

Alice Harris, a girl twenty years old, came here with Campbell, who was a married man, last evening, from Mt. Airy, and she admits being in the room at the time the fatel shot was fired. She also told the officers to-day that Campbell had $410 in a pocket in his undershirt when he left Mt. Airy yesterday.

Manual Manual

An investigation was made but the pocket and pioney were gone, only a few threads being found in the shirt where a pocket had evidently once been. The girl was also carefully scarched this afternoon before she left for her home at Mount Airy, but no trace of the money was found.

A bank book in Campbell's pocket showed that he drew $291.47, all the money he had on deposit, out of the First National Bank of Mt. Airy, last Saturday.

The Stonecuters' Union at Mt. Airy, of which the deceased was a member, sent a committee here to-night to take the body home to-morrow for interment.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Maych 7.—In the Matthews's murder trial, the whole day was consumed in the argument. Solicitor Brooks closed at six o'clock, and the court took a recess until seven-thirty.

At that hour, Judge Ferguson announced that it would be impossible to do justice to a case of such moment after such a hard day's work, as it would take several hours to deliver the charge, and court was adjourned until eight-thirty Thursday.
